HIGH-QUALITY AYURVEDA AND HERBAL
WELLNESS PRODUCTS

Our Legacy

The Himalayas are the native place to almost all herbs, trees, minerals, etc. that were described by the fore fathers of Ayurvedic traditions. Ayurveda is an advanced science that treats most complex diseases. The concept of imbalanced nature of V-P-K doshas in every individual is the underlying principle for treatment in Ayurveda. It takes care of the body, mind and soul; and therefore provides a unique remedy to all diseases at root level. Veda5, nested in The Himalayas is the perfect ground to prepare numerous formulations from various selected materials and Ayurvedic literatures.

Our Brand

We operate various Ayurvedic establishments all over India, ranging from Ayurvedic spas to luxury retreats. Our flagship retreat - Veda5 Ayurveda & Yoga Retreat situated in the Holy City of Rishikesh amidst the Himalayas is one of the most reputed Ayurveda, Panchakarma and Yoga retreats in India where nature meets luxury meets wellness.

Since 2017 we shifted our focus towards consumer oriented Ayurvedic products with our team of doctors and analysts working towards in Research & Development in full-fledged laboratories and research centre located in Rishikesh. Our product range is live for sale across various online retail outlets since 2020.

Our Products

Veda5 - Himalayan Naturals aims to promote the ancient science of Ayurveda through modern means. We manufacture our range of luxury Ayurvedic products after deep research and intense quality checks only to deliver the best and authentic to our customers. Our existing ancient Ayurvedic formulations helps us achieve so. Our range of products include 100% natural cosmetics, massage oils, hair oils, immunity boosters and nutritional supplements.
